2. SUBMISSION OF CUSTOMER COMPLAINTS

E-mail address: Complaints@creutz-partners.com

3. PROCEDURE

The customer complaint manager always pursues the goal of immediately working out a satisfying solution for the customer with regard to his complaint. In his response to the complaint, the complaint manager informs the customer of this solution.

Should this not be possible within the first two working days after the date Creutz & Partners has received the complaint, the customer will be notified via an intermediate reply explaining the reasons for the delay in giving a definitive answer.

If the definitive answer to the customer complaint has not been communicated within ten working days after submission of the intermediate reply, the customer will receive a further notification clarifying the matter.

The customer can send an informal notification to Creutz & Partners, if he/she does not agree with the results and the measures taken by the customer complaint manager and stated in the definitive reply to the customer's complaint.

In case the customer does not agree with the treatment or with the proposed solution concerning his/her complaint after receipt of the definitive answer, he/she can initiate an out-of-court complaint resolution procedure before the CSSF »Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier«, which is the supervisory authority of Creutz & Partners, about which Creutz & Partners will provide the customer with separate information.
